My Coaching Approach: I believe Executive Coaching, Coach Supervision & Mentoring, Facilitation and Consulting are partnership and outcome-oriented processes that generate the best results with an effective balance of challenge, support and joy.

Through a highly engaged dialogue, valuable new perspectives, insights and opportunities are discovered, new approaches created, fresh and creative solutions found. Awareness about personal strengths and an effective integration with development areas allow to unlock new potentials and help to align intention and desired impact of the behaviour. Each coaching situation has different priorities in a given context and moment.

I work with a wide repertoire of evidence-based coaching approaches and trust my intuition and creativity for effective collaboration. It is my goal to help you unfold your unique personal authenticity, building on your strengths and unfolding your development potentials in service of your aspirations.

Experiences & Qualifications:

I bring a combination of successful global leadership experience, as a senior top executive in large global organisations, in combination with long-term coaching practice and solid leading edge international continuous education as a Top Business Executive Coach.

My strong analytical skills and outstanding competencies in synthesizing, integrating complexity and in facilitating sense making, allow me to reliably help you focus on the essentials. Together, we can simplify these and bring them to the key points that allow you to communicate effectively with your key stakeholders.

You will move forward with clarity, confidence and energy.
Coaching & Facilitation is what I love to do.
